Taft Road Grand Opening Includes Cruise Raffle, Coach Autry

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: SYRACUSE, N.Y. –

The Summit Federal Credit Union is raffling a Caribbean cruise as part of the opening celebration of its new branch at 5201 West Taft Road in Syracuse. The raffle may be entered in person at The Summit's new Taft Road branch from Wednesday, July 19th until August 2nd.

Syracuse University Basketball Associate Head Coach Adrian Autry will be at The Summit's Taft Road branch August 2nd from 11 a.m. to 12 p.m. to sign autographs, pose for photos and draw the cruise winner.

"We wanted this celebration to be for the entire community, so both members and non-members are eligible to win the cruise, and can come meet Coach Autry," said Vice President of Marketing and Community Relations, Cheryl Pohlman.

At 12 p.m., The Summit will present checks to both the Jim and Juli Boeheim Foundation and the Carol M. Baldwin Breast Cancer Research Fund. The checks contain money raised by The Summit, Tops Friendly Markets and Kinney Drugs, on behalf of both organizations, at The Summit Federal Credit Union Taste of Syracuse last month.

"Giving back is a core part of what we do at The Summit, so we love being able to offer the raffle, host the Coach Autry event and present these checks to such important local organizations," said Pohlman. "August 2nd will be an extremely exciting day at The Summit."
